

TRONGuide TV
Season 2, Episode 11
Production notes

Opening title sequence

Greg:

Welcome back to TRONGuide TV, coming to you from CCTV right here in Salem.

A few weeks ago Jerry Garfield volunteered himself and his family to give a little music performance here at CCTV; he brought a whole bunch of people in, actually. The show gave the volunteer crew a chance to practice making some good TV.

On next week's show we're featuring my interview with the guys from Living Culture; stay tuned for a preview of that segment at the end of today's show.

Well, here we go with another TRONGuide TV music special featuring Jerry Garfield and friends. Be sure to visit cctvsalem.org/tronguide for information about CCTV's video production workshops, so you too can be involved in productions like this one.

Segment: TGTV Music Special

Greg:

A huge thanks to Jerry, Bailey, Carter, and Spencer Garfield, all of whom performed on the show, plus Deborah Barber, Sarah Tomsha, Hayley Hicks, Paul La Freneur, and everybody who volunteered on the crew.

That's the show for this week, I'll leave you with a little teaser under the credits here for next week's show featuring Nate and Daniel Rafn of Living Culture. See you then!

Credits + clip of Nate and Daniel